

Augustinian Monastery of St. Florian

Today's baroque building, dating to St. Florian (+304), is one of the few completed baroque monastery complexes, a work by the Italian architect Carlo Antonio Carlone and the Austrian Jakob Prandtauer. We are led through the library with its 150.000 volumes, the imperial rooms, an escape of 13 magnificent with apartments with original baroque furnishings. Also in the church with Bruckner organ and Sarcophagus of the famous Anton Bruckner who is buried here.

Upper Austrian State Fire Brigade Museum – Historic Fire Brigade House

On more than 1.000 m² we see many devices and vehicles that are still operational, located directly in the Maierhof, where we park.

VOESTALPINE Steel world in Linz/D. The voyage of discovery takes us along the areas of steelmaking, processing and products. With multimedia buses we drive deep into the 5,2 km² factory site. Directly to the plants. We take a look behind the scenes of steel making.
